	work performed under this Contract cumulatively exceeding $15,000	, Contractor and its subcontractors shall comply with State prevailing wage laws including, but not limited to, the requirements listed below This requirement is in addition to the requirement to pay Living Wage pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code sections 22.4201 through 22.	4245.
	Contractor must determine which per diem rate is highest for each classification of work (i.e. Prevailing Wage Rate or Living Wage Rate	,, and pay the highest of the two rates to their employees. Living Wag	е applies to workers who are not subject to Prevailing Wage Rates.
	1. Compliance with Prevailing Wage Requirements. Pursuant to sect	tions
	1720 through 1861 of the California Labor Code, Contractor and its	41-1-subcontractors shall ensure that all workers who perform work under Contract are paid not less than the prevailing rate of per diem wages	as determined by the Director of the California Department of Industrial	1 Relations (DIR). This includes work performed during the design and preconstruction phases of construction including, but not limited to, inspection and land surveying work.
	1.1. Copies of such prevailing rate of per diem wages are on file at the	10
	City of San Diego's Equal Opportunity Contracting Department and a available for inspection to any interested party on request. Copies of the prevailing rate of per diem wages also may be found at http://www.dir.ca.gov/OPRL/DPreWageDetermination.htm. Contractor	or and its subcontractors shall post a copy of the prevailing rate of per diem	or arra ito wages determination at each job site and shall make them available	to any interested party upon request.
	1.2. The wage rates determined by the DIR refer to expiration dates.	If the published wage rate does not refer to a predetermined wage rate be paid after the expiration date, then the published rate of wage sha be in effect for the life of this Contract. If the published wage rate refers to a predetermined wage rate to become effective upon expira	ation of the published wage rate and the predetermined wage rate is on fil with the DIR, such predetermined wage rate shall become effective of date following the expiration date and shall apply to this Contract in the same manner as if it had been published in said publication. If the	ne predetermined wage rate refers to one or more additional expiration dates with additional predetermined wage rates, which expiration da	tes occur during the life of this Contract, each successive predetermined	I wage rate shall apply to this Contract on the date following the e xpiration date of the previous wage rate. If the last of such predeterm	nined wage rates ex	pires during the life such wage rate shall apply to the balance of the Contract.
	2. Penalties for Violations. Contractor and its subcontractors shall comply with California Labor Code section 1775 in the event a worker	er is paid less than the prevailing wage rate for the work or craft in which the worker is employed. This shall be in addition to any other
