

|                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                       |                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| DRAWN BY: SWG                                                                                | CITY OF SAN DIEGO--OPERATING DEPARTMENTPLAN FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OFUNIVERSITY AVENUE G-19Between Florida St. and Alabama St. | DATE February 1917      |
| CHECKED BY:                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                       | SCALE                          |
| FIELD BOOKSGeorge CronwellCITY ENGINEERJ.M. LockwoodMGR. OF OPERATION |                                                                                                                                                       | DRAWING NUMBER206 B |

Indexed