	1. Compliance with Prevailing Wage Requirements. Pursuant to se 1720 through 1861 of the California Labor Code, Contractor and its subcontractors shall ensure that all workers who perform work und Contract are paid not less than the prevailing rate of per diem wag determined by the Director of the California Department of Industri Relations (DIR). This includes work performed during the design a preconstruction phases of construction including, but not limited to	, inspection and land surveying work.	t tha 1.1. Copies of such prevailing rate of per diem wages are on file at City of San Diego's Equal Opportunity Contracting Department and available for inspection to any interested party on request. Copies the prevailing rate of per diem wages also may be found at	01 http://www.dir.ca.gov/OPRL/DPreWageDetermination.htm. Contra	ctor and its subcontractors shall post a copy of the prevailing rate of per diem wages determination at each job site and shall make them available	le to any interested party upon request.
	1.2. The wage rates determined by the DIR refer to expiration date	ae If the published wage rate does not refer to a predetermined wage rate be paid after the expiration date, then the published rate of wage s be in effect for the life of this Contract. If the published wage rate refers to a predetermined wage rate to become effective upon exp	iration of the published wage rate and the predetermined wage rate is on with the DIR, such predetermined wage rate shall become effective date following the expiration date and shall apply to this Contract in the same manner as if it had been published in said publication. If predetermined wage rate refers to one or more additional expiratio dates with additional predetermined wage rates, which expiration of occur during the life of this Contract, each successive predetermin wage rate shall apply to this Contract on the date following the e xpiration date of the previous wage rate. If the last of such predete	rmined wage rates ex	pires during the life such wage rate shall apply to the balance of the Contract.
	2. Penalties for Violations. Contractor and its subcontractors shall comply with California Labor Code section 1775 in the event a wor	rker is paid less than the prevailing wage rate for the work or craft in whic the worker is employed. This shall be in addition to any other applicable penalties allowed under Labor Code sections 1720 – 18	361.
	3. Payroll Records. Contractor and its subcontractors shall comply	with California Labor Code section 1776, which generally requires keep	ping accurate payroll records, verifying and certifying payroll records, an	nd making them available for inspection. Contractor shall require its subcontractors to also comply with section 1776. Contractor and its	S subcontractors shall submit weekly certified payroll records online	via the City's web-based Labor Compliance Program. Contractor is re-	sponsible for ensuring its subcontractors submit certified payroll records to the	ne City. Contractor and its subcontractors shall also furnish the record	ds
